Notice dated 4th April 1907.

Notice is hereby given, under Section 48, clause 2, of Mysore Municipal Regulation of 1906, that the following draft Bye-Law, having been approved by the Municipal Council of the Bangalore City, will be taken into consideration with a view to its being brought into force on or after the 1st of May 1907 together with any objection thereto which may be received before that date:—

GENERAL PROCEDURE AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

MYSORE MUNICIPAL REGULATION OF 1906.

Sections 26 (1), (4) and (5), 24 (1) and 46 (a).

1. The ordinary meeting of the Municipal Councillors shall be held at the Municipal Office once a month on the third Thursday of each month at 8 A.M., or on such date and time as may seem expedient to the President.

2. At an hour fixed for a meeting of the Councillors, if a quorum be present, the business of the meeting may at once commence, and, if neither the President nor a Vice-President be present, the meeting may proceed at once to choose a presiding Councillor under Section 26 (5). If the President or the Vice-President arrives after a presiding Councillor has been chosen by the meeting, the presiding Councillor shall leave the chair, and the President or Vice-President shall preside.

3. A Councillor wishing to speak must rise in his place. The Councillor who first rises to speak has the right to be heard. In cases of doubt, the Chairman shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a Councillor shall be permitted, except that the Chairman may call the Councillor to order, and any other Councillor may rise and request the Chairman to call the speaker to order.

3 (a). All questions from one Commissioner to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the President.

4. All points of order shall be decided by the Chairman alone, and the Chairman's decision upon a point of order shall not be disputed at the meeting at which it is given.

5. Each Councillor rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting or at an amendment which he himself is about to propose, or to a point of order always addressing the President from his place. A Councillor having spoken to a proposition or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such proposition or amendment.

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply, after the Chairman has ascertained that no other Councillor entitled to speak, desires to speak.

Provided also, that any Councillor may second a proposition or amendment by saying "I second the proposition" or "amendment," and may reserve his right to speak later.

Provided also, that a Councillor who wishes to explain any misconception of expressions used by him may do so with the permission of the Chairman.

6. Routine resolutions such as recording periodical statements or confirming the proceedings of a Committee, may be put to the meeting by the Chairman without their having been moved or seconded. Propositions regarding the choice of a presiding Councillor, adjournments and the like must be seconded, but need not be in writing.
